ISTANBUL: 2010 EUROPEAN CAPITAL OF CULTURE
THE ONLY CITY IN THE WORLD THAT STRADDLES TWO CONTINENTS:
EUROPE & ASIA

GLBL 298
CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN MODERN TURKEY
(May 17-31, 2010)

This course focuses on cultural diversity of Turkey by examining the relationship between different cultural elements, which help us Turkish culture better. Some of the issues that will be explored from a global perspective are: minorities and cultural richness, social classes and regional differences, immigration and changing cultural values, history and modernism, linguistic and ethnic diversity, religious diversity and secularism.

Program Fee: $2,450* for LAS students.
($2,950 for other students)
: Includes air fare, 3 hotel accommodation, day trips, and all meals. No extra tuition costs! It is included in your spring tuition.

No Turkish language required!

Contact: Ercan BALCI (Dept. of Linguistics)
ebalci@illinois.edu

Registration Deadline: February 1, 2010

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, College of LAS and Study Abroad Office