Arabic Language and Culture in Jordan
Arabic 199
Amman, Jordan
May 16–June 13, 2009

PROGRAM SUMMARY
This study-abroad course in Jordan is designed to provide students the opportunity to develop their language proficiency through an intensive immersion program, to enhance their awareness of different aspects of the Arab culture, and to acquire the skills needed for conducting research about the target culture. Students will study the Arabic language intensively; interact with a wide variety of scholars, students, and teachers; discover the rich diversity of the Arab culture; and visit important cultural and historical sites in Jordan. Students who complete this course will receive 5 hours of credit.

PROGRAM FEE* $3350
Includes: Airfare, housing, excursions, and local transportation. Does Not Include: U of I tuition and fees, meals, visa, and personal expenses.

LAS students are eligible for a $500-1100 scholarship.
All students should visit www.studyabroad.uiuc.edu for additional scholarship, pricing, and application information.

DEADLINE
February 12, 2009

CONTACT
Abdulkafi Albirini
Department of Linguistics
albirini@illinois.edu

PREREQUISITE
One year of Arabic instruction (Arab 201 or 202 at Illinois), or instructor’s permission

* This is an estimated fee at this time. Cost can fluctuate as a result of changing exchange rates, number of participants, etc.