Cyprus

The flag of Cyprus is white with a copper-colored silhouette of the island. The copper color comes from the name of the island, which is derived from the Greek word for copper. Below the silhouette of the island are two green crossed olive branches in the center of the flag. The branches symbolize the hope for peace and reconciliation between the Greek and Turkish communities of the island.