Magic Carpet Ride Maze

Start                                                                                                                                            Start

End

Created by the Center for South Asian & Middle Eastern Studies, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Travel to the Spice Bazaar

A trip to the spice bazaar is a weekly journey. Those who reach the bazaar are rewarded by bringing zest to the family meal. Good luck!
Travel to Samarra

The road to ancient Samarra is a complicated one, with many twists and turns. If you are patient and perseverant, you might just reach your destination, and see the famous spiral minaret. Good luck my friend!